MISHAWAKA -- The Troyer Group has received a Governor's Award for Environmental Excellence for a project that reduced the E. coli impact to Lake Michigan by returning the Dunes Creek to a natural stream and wetlands area at the Indiana Dunes State Park. The project was designed with the help of JF New and Associates. Gariup Construction Co. served as the contractor. The Troyer Group also received the National Association of Conservation Engineers' Award of Excellence for the creek restoration project.

SOUTH BEND -- The Indiana Broadcasters Association has named WSBT-TV as station of the year. The station was noted for its outstanding work in 2007.

WSBT-TV was recognized for its extraordinary efforts to stay on the air during a power blackout that occurred in downtown South Bend a few hours before the station's main newscasts. At the same time, tornadoes were popping up near LaPorte and Niles.

The station also was recognized for service to the community through its 22 Ways of Giving project and its I Love to Read program involving more than 15,000 students.

Other station projects recognized by the award included Best Blast, Weather Camp and Business Break.
