

Article published Oct 22, 2009

McKinley Highway open near Osceola

Tribune Staff Report

OSCEOLA — McKinley Highway is now open between Bittersweet and Birch roads.

The Troyer Group, which is supervising the construction, reported today that one lane is open in each direction.

The road closed in June so it could be widened to five lanes, with a new storm sewer system and sidewalks.

Some restrictions will remain for work to be finished, including landscaping.

---